CANFIELD, OHIO

Foreword

The magic of faces is to be discovered in the various traits of character they reflect and the mood and emotion through which they express this character. Joy may be detected through the sparkle in one's eyes or a broadening smile. A tear may express sorrow or joy. Disgust is characterized by the raising of an eyebrow or a toss of the head; determination, by a squared jaw.

So it is with the facades of buildings. Their faces reflect the period in which they were designed and the care and planning that went into every structure.

Facades of buildings of bygone years which have received hard wear are characterized by the weathering of the brick, the worn steps, and the towering trees. But the building with polished rails, shiny new desks and saplings and shrubs distinguishes the building of youthfulness which has yet to mature.

In time the character and moods of faces change. The proof of this change is in the contrast of the new school and the old, your childhood picture and your senior portrait. Herein we have captured the magic of many faces . . .

"In the past we have had a light which flickered, in the present we have a light which flames, and in the future there will be a light which shines over all the land and sea."

— Winston Churchill

The first high school classes for Canfield were held in the present Guide Building. This building, then known as the North Eastern Ohio Normal College, was the original Mahoning County Court House. Shortly after Canfield High School was chartered in 1911, it became increasingly evident that a larger school was needed. In 1922, the first high school was built. After four additions, in 1929, 1939, 1952, and 1956, our present new school was built to meet the needs of this growing community, and it established a firm educational foundation for the future.

Faculty

Assistant Superintendent

Mr. Jones received his B.S. degree from Youngstown University and his M.S. degree from Kent State University. He then continued his graduate study at Columbia University of New York. He spent several years as superintendent at Western Reserve and North Lima High Schools and was an elementary principal in the Jackson-Milton School System. Serving as assistant superintendent at CHS, Mr. Jones believes in looking at the world of teachers and students in the hopes of correlating their activities to form a successful and functional educational unit. Quoting Henry David Thoreau, Mr. Jones remarked "To affect the quality of the day; this is the greatest of the arts." Applying this statement to education, he believes that each day brings about new challenges to be met and new goals to be obtained by both teachers and students.

Board of Education

John H. Rodgers, President; Clyde K. Walter, M.D., Vice-president; Paul E. Manchester, C. M. Johnson, Superintendent; Leonard A. Gagliardi, Myron R. Leonard, Halden L. Booth, Clerk-Treasurer.

Superintendent

Mr. Johnson began his teaching career in 1932, in a small high school of fifty pupils and three teachers. Since then, he has experienced innumerable pleasures and rewards through his connection with education. Coming to Canfield in 1935, Mr. Johnson taught such diversified subjects as English, science, math, and chemistry, his college major. Two years later he was appointed principal and in 1949 was named superintendent of the Canfield School System. At this time, the Canfield School consisted of 23 teachers and 625 students. Now, under Mr. Johnson's supervision, Canfield has expanded its teaching staff to 106 and its student body to 2478. Because of his imaginative leadership, Canfield School System has easily made the adjustment from a small country school to a suburban community center. As superintendent, Mr. Johnson recommends teachers to the Board of Education and has charge of the fiscal responsibilities of the Canfield Schools. His position as superintendent has been a most rewarding one to him. "Certainly," Mr. Johnson commented, "the most rewarding part of being connected with the Canfield School System is when young people who have been serious problems in high school, come back to be friends. This shows character." A feeling of pride also comes to him when students come back to live in Canfield after graduating from college, for this is a compliment not only to the school, but also to the community. The entire student body would like to honor him for his invaluable contributions to our educational system.

C. M. JOHNSON, Superintendent

Mr. Watkins, Assistant Principal

"I was extremely fortunate in gaining this position in addition to moving into a new building," was the remark made by Mr. James Watkins after completing his first successful year as assistant principal. Among his many new responsibilities were the scheduling of students and the setting up of the school's curriculum. His aim in implementing changes in the curriculum was the hope of trying to improve the total educational program of Canfield High School. This task is a major guidepost for any good administrator. To help Mr. Watkins perform a task not so enviable, he has developed a guiding principle — "The ultimate goal of the discipline program is to instill self-discipline within the student."

Mr. Francis, Principal

After graduating from college in 1941, Mr. Francis entered the teaching profession. His work as a teacher was interrupted for a period of 44 months during World War II in which he served as a U.S. Navy fighter director officer in the South Pacific. Upon return from the service, he served on the staffs of Jackson-Milton and Hubbard High Schools as a teacher and coach before joining the staff of CHS in the fall of 1953. The following year Mr. Francis was appointed principal. Since this time he has had the opportunity to counsel and to observe students as they matriculated. Recalling a quote by Ruskin, "The highest reward for man's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it," Mr. Francis commented, "When you receive your diploma, reward for twelve years toil, your thoughts will be on your next job and to probable reward. On and on through life this pattern will be repeated. Everyone needs these tangible rewards."

"I trust you will have learned here at Canfield High School, that a task well done with all the accompanying inner satisfaction and growth can be its own reward."

"I hope that the happy and productive hours you have spent at CHS will linger long in your memories as you travel life's road."

Mrs. Ellen Neff, world history, civics
Mr. William Kay, government

Mrs. Jesse Wilkinson, American history

Mrs. Margaret Tuta, economics, American history

Social Studies

Under the guidance of CHS social studies teachers, students become aware of the history of the world, growth of the American nation, foundations of our government and a view of the free enterprise system. Through its teaching, the department hopes to aid students in understanding, and appreciating their heritage along with becoming responsible citizens of the future.

English

English, a man-made language, has grown with the human race. Man realized that he needed a means of communication, a way of acquiring knowledge, and he found that he could obtain this knowledge through the medium of language. As times changed, the language also changed so that it would accurately portray and reflect the people who used it. Once we understand our language it is possible to study literature for literature is a unique and permanent written expression which offers us food for thought. Both language and literature combined measure the growth and expansion of a civilization.

Mrs. Dolores Hall, guidance, speech, English 9, 12

Mr. Ronald Kendall, English 10, 11.

Miss Barbara Huberty, English 11

Miss Karen Kerrigan, English 9.

Mr. James Wilhide, English 10, journalism.

Mrs. Lois Rayburn, English 10, 12.

Mrs. Wanda Weimer, librarian.

Mathematics

In our increasingly automated and mechanized world, the use of mathematics is becoming more and more important. Without it there would be no Gemini space program, or computer system to help industry increase the quality and production of goods, nor would there be radios or televisions for our convenience and pleasure. Mathematics provides the means by which the facts of nature are represented and recorded. Through it, a world of figures, equalities and inequalities, square roots and formulas is opened to challenge the imagination.

Miss Jane Paulin, Algebra I.

Mr. James Drake, modern math, geometry.

Mrs. Ruth Lantz, geometry, senior math, modern math.

Mr. Edwin Nass, Algebra II, business math.

Language

Language is a gift from the Creator, a conscious invention of man, or a spontaneous product of human nature. These are three theories of the origin of language, the latter of which is the most widely accepted. The three foreign languages taught at Canfield High School are French, Spanish and Latin.

Americans, unfortunately, do not find it necessary to be multilingual, as do most Europeans. The language department gives students an opportunity to remedy this serious lack in American culture. This language study helps us understand and use the language of people which otherwise would remain unknown and unappreciated.

Miss Carolyn Stump, French I and II.

Mrs. Amelia Cook, Latin I and II.

Mr. Frank Fisher, Spanish I, II and III, sociology.

Science

From atoms to infinity — the world of science is a world for the curious, the imaginative, and the persistent. It is a world of systems and of laws. He who enters, discovers that the realm of nature is characterized by structure, order, function, and most important — purpose. The thrill of scientific study lies in the application of reason and the powers of observation.

Business Education

CHS has introduced a new program in the development of occupational skills known as the Intensive Employment Program in Business and Office Education. The school utilizes federal funds to help in purchasing new equipment and materials needed to carry out the program to its fullest extent. Depth of training is emphasized in this government project. Starting at the eleventh grade, a block of time, four or five consecutive periods each day, is devoted to typing and bookkeeping. The goal of this concentration is to help to develop occupational skills for the students so that they are ready to undertake a business position at the completion of their senior year.

(1) Mrs. Diane Alejars, business communications, Shorthand I, Typing I, secretarial office practice; (2) Mrs. Sally Klingensmith, personal typing, Typing II, clerical office practice; (3) Mr. Carl DeAngelo, business economics, introduction to business, bookkeeping.

Music

Music is not only an art, but also a language. It has structure and form, a beginning, middle and end. Music is flexible and its patterns may change with the whims of its composer. It may tell an adventure story, a drama, a tragedy or even a hilarious comedy. Musical discourse has continuity of thought. A question is asked, then answered; a statement is made; a reply follows. It flows together, as the day into night. Everyone can enjoy music in one form or another, for music is a universal language.

- (2) Mr. Paul Rossi, instrumental music.
- (3) Miss Kathleen McDonald, vocal music.

The guidance counselors perform an important service in helping the students of CHS to decide an educational and occupational future. Students need their assistance and advice on the required subjects, college entrance tests, and personal problems which may arise.

Industrial arts develops skill and accuracy in manual dexterity. These courses enable students to further develop an ability which can be put to use outside of the school as a vocation.

Aides to Academics

Every educator at Canfield High School has one goal in common, and that is to develop a well-rounded citizen out of every student. Through the efforts of the art department, students acquire basic concepts and appreciation of fine art. Throughout the year, they are urged to enter into competition which inspires them to be more perceptive.

Driver education teaches students to have caution, courtesy, and common sense behind the wheel and to have obedience and respect for the law.

Physical education activates unknown muscles to build strong, healthy bodies and aids in developing coordination and rhythm.

- (1) Mr. William Balogh, physical education.
- (2) Mr. Fred Gill, driver education.

UNDERCLASSMEN

As the freshman student emerges from the security of eighth grade, he encounters the rigors of adapting to high school life. Before him is a year that will offer experience in selling Polly Doodles, in struggling with the endless pages of Silas Marner and Julius Caesar and in the inescapable challenge of algebraic equations. New study habits are formed because a more thorough knowledge of the subject is required. Freshmen make new and valuable friendships which are enjoyed throughout the remaining years of high school. The freshman year is one of utmost importance on which the foundation of higher learning rests.

To be a sophomore is to struggle through term papers, Moby Dick, Ivanhoe and a seemingly endless supply of study guides. It is to dissect frogs, crabs and worms and to breathe the unforgettable fragrance of formaldehyde. This year the sophomores have had the opportunity to experience an innovation in the Canfield classroom, team teaching. This practice was initiated by the English department to develop more fully a broad background in the English language and literature.

As in any other year of high school, it's not all work and no play. The sophomore boys found excitement and challenge by being able to participate in varsity and reserve sports, while the girls found enjoyment in forming and participating in a new club at Canfield, Y-Teens.

The junior year without The Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin and The Deerslayer would be like Sunday night without Bonanza. Thus the juniors carried on the traditional academic third year and all the extra-curricular activities bequeathed to them. There was much excitement upon receiving their class rings, electing class officers and taking their driver examinations. The junior-senior prom was especially exciting for the junior class this year, with the crowning of the queen. Juniors also sponsored the first all-school play, The Teahouse of the August Moon.

Student Council

Student Council members had a fundamental role in the establishment of many new programs at Canfield High School. Under the direction of President Jack Vaughn, the council endorsed the renewal of seniority, a cafeteria monitor system and other programs for the benefit of the student body. Trips to Poland and Champion High Schools were made possible in hopes of gaining more effective ideas on the functions of a student council.

The Student Council sponsored a fall and spring dance, planned the Christmas assembly entitled "Christmas Is Coming," and organized the annual school candy sale.

In these ways, the Student Council successfully completed its first year in the new high school by endeavoring to improve the existing policies for the betterment of student life.

N.H.S., National Merit Scholarship

Under the dedicated leadership of Mrs. Margaret Tuta, the National Honor Society has completed a fruitful year at CHS. Students are admitted to this organization on the basis of their character, scholarship, leadership, and service. NHS members willingly gave up a study hall to share their scholastic talents in aiding students. The club also added to the extra-curricular activities of the school by sponsoring a dance and presenting an assembly program patterned after the "College Bowl."

In March, twenty-five students were inducted into NHS to join the already existing members in carrying out the aim of the Canfield NHS — to maintain the high standards set forth in the constitution.

Canfield High School has been honored this year with a National Merit Scholarship finalist, Dave Bixler. Letters of Commendation were awarded to Jane Ann Barker, Jim Hedge and Terry Moore for outstanding ability and achievement on the National Merit Scholarship Test.

Journalism

Newly established this year, under the direction of Mr. James Wilhide, were two journalism classes composed of 51 industrious and news-minded students. Making up the staffs for both the Cardinal and the Top-Knotter, these students worked feverously all year to inform the student body of school events through the Cardinal and to record the events of the year in the Top-Knotter.

Busy almost every day getting articles written, corrected, rewritten, proofread, typed and set on a dummy sheet, members of the Cardinal staff composed and completed an interesting and informative bi-monthly newspaper for the students of CHS. The Top-Knotter, being gradually and carefully assembled throughout the year, is published with one aim in mind — to keep forever those unforgettable moments of an unforgettable year.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club creates an interest in the field of theatrics. Student experience if not directly in acting, is in working on the stage crew, lighting, make-up, properties, publicity, costuming, programs, and directing. Members usher at many Canfield plays as well as at the Youngstown Playhouse. Bentley Lenhoff, executive director of the Playhouse, was a guest speaker at the first meeting of the year. Other meetings consisted of plays, skits, and short stories presented by various members of the club. The Dramatics Club incorporated a new system this year in the class plays, opening them to all interested students from ninth to twelfth grade. The Talent Show, an annual event sponsored by the Dramatics Club, was a highlight of the year.

Thespians

Thespiian Troupe 1183 of CHS exists as a society for the improvement of the dramatic arts in secondary schools. Membership in the organization is reserved for those who have distinguished themselves by contributing time and effort to many Canfield dramatic arts programs. Activities of the troupe include ushering and an annual trip to New York, the theatre capitol of the world.

Tri-Hi-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character" is the motto of Tri-Hi-Y organizations everywhere. The Canfield club in the past year, under the leadership of Mrs. Wanda Weimer, strove to attain this goal. The 89 members of the club performed such service projects as serving on the Juvenile Jury, ushering at "South Pacific," planning and participating in assemblies, attending the Youth-in-Government conference in Columbus, and participating in the annual Civic Day activities. Showing their concern for others, the Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a program "Will you help?" to provide boxes for men fighting in Viet Nam, and provided Easter entertainment for children at the Cerebral Palsy Center.

Hi-Y

"Clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, clean living" was the principal goal in serving with the Hi-Y. Completing this year with their new advisor, Mr. Kay, and the largest membership in the history of the club, the members undertook many projects in service to to their school and community. The boys raised money for the Muscular Distrophy Center, sold basketball schedule pens and "Canfield Cardinal" license plates, made lap boards for the school and sponsored a hop after a basketball game. Senior Hi-Y members participated in Civic Day and the annual Youth-in-Government program.

Y-Teens

Aiming to engage young women in serving others, the Y-Teens club found its way to CHS this year. The interested sophomore girls, under the direction of Mrs. Lois Rayburn, made Thanksgiving favors for the Youngstown hospital, collected toys for the Salvation Army and sponsored Viet Nam and Appalachia projects. The world Fellowship Smorgasbord, a dinner to which foreign dishes were brought and folk dances demonstrated, helped the Y-Teen girls get a glimpse of customs of people around the world.

Every year the YWCA, the sponsor of the Y-Teens, holds a Touchdown Toddle dance, at the close of the football season, as well as a spring formal at the Idora Park Ballroom in May.

Key Club

Throughout the year, the Key Club dedicated its work for the betterment of the school, community and nation. Participating in the Marine Corps "Toys for Tots" Campaign, the annual CARE drive, Canfield's own "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Campaign" and many Kiwanis sponsored projects, the members found satisfaction in working to help others. A rebounder was purchased for Canfield's athletic department and a contribution was made to help purchase books for the high school library.

As a means of building up a competitive spirit, the local Key Club organizations had inter-club basketball games. The CHS Key Club basketball team defeated the East High Key Club to remain undefeated and capture first place in the district.

AFS

"Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the earth. Then and only then shall ye be free." Fulfilling this challenging motto of the American Field Service, CHS proudly participated in Karl Bjorklund's arrival from Sweden, Bonnie Brenner's homecoming from New Zealand and Jerry Eyster's departure for South Africa.

AFS members worked long hours selling Christmas trees and sponsoring a basketball game to earn money in order to finance the exchange students. The climax of the year was AFS Day when CHS played host to other AFS students from different countries who were living in the Youngstown area. While they were at Canfield, they visited classrooms and shared their impressions and experiences with CHS'ers.

"Everything is going great! It's really wonderful to be here and meet so many great kids. My only regret is that in a year I'll leave and they'll stay. Everybody is very friendly and helpful. It's a wonderful experience and I have so many people to thank for it. It's really hard to believe. Every now and then I picture myself waking up and finding out this was all a dream. Thank you and please THANK EVERYBODY back home who helped in any small way to make this possible."

— Jerry Eyster

French Club & Spanish Club

The French Club, under the direction of Miss Carolyn Stump and Miss Virginia Burgoyne, had a very successful first year. Striving to fulfill their purpose of creating interest in the romance language and in the customs and people of French-speaking countries, the monthly programs were centered around this theme. On one occasion the club was honored with the presence of Anne Marie Richard, a French girl who was in Boardman. The French Club members were also entertained by the showing of Mademoiselle Stump's slides from her European tour in the summer of 1966. During the Yuletide season, the French Club members along with the Spanish Club members celebrated by having a party using the customs of each of the foreign nations.

"To further the understanding of Spanish-speaking nations" is the aim of the Spanish Club. Meeting the third Thursday of every month, the members with their sponsor, Mr. Fisher, strove to attain this goal. Several of their monthly meetings were spent viewing slides of Spain and films which illustrated the customs of many Latin American nations and attending a Spanish ballet at Stambaugh Auditorium.

F.T.A.

The training to perpetuate the teaching profession is begun as early as the freshman year. In order to understand more fully what is required of an educator and how the world of modern teaching has changed, informative and thought-provoking programs were planned for the "future teachers." Teachers and school officials from the area presented their ideas and advice from personal experiences. Programs concerning teaching elementary children how to read by color, the advantages and disadvantages of teaching in a private school, the teaching methods of European schools and many others made up the program schedule for the year. Many of the "future teachers" journeyed weekly to the local elementary schools to obtain on-the-spot experience in the classrooms.

Pep Club

A major source of enthusiasm at the home basket-ball games this year was the Pep Club. These girls practiced every Wednesday after school to perfect their routines. An innovation this year was the effective use of the flash cards. It took long hours of prac-tice for these girls to learn to handle the cards easily. Performing at all home games and one tournament game, the Pep Club was a powerful well of enthusi-asm.

G.A.A.

A group of sports-minded girls met this year to form a Girls' Athletic Association. With its members participating in basketball, football, tennis, track, and volleyball, these girls learned the value of good sportsmanship and the benefits of a regular exercising program. Their advisor, Mrs. Inglis helped the club by making it possible for the girls to enter into competition with other schools in the area. Their most exciting events of the year were participating in Greenford's "Play Day" and the Boardman Girls' Track Meet.

In December, marching drills and pep songs were set aside and the concert season began. Along with the senior chorus, the band participated in a Christmas concert at the Mahoning County Home for the Aged. Proving their musical talent, musicians competed in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Youngstown University and in the all-county band. As a unit, the concert band performed at the Ohio Music Education Association District Band Contest receiving an excellent rating. In February, the band held an exchange concert with Jackson-Milton High School and concluded their activities with the annual spring concert.

Chorus

Directed by Miss Kam McDonald, Canfield High School chorus members learned music fundamentals and appreciation. Thirty members from grades 9-12 made up the newly formed varsity chorus. At the Thanksgiving assembly the varsity chorus sang several selections. At Christmas, along with the Student Council, the chorus presented a yuletide program entitled "Christmas Is Coming."

The senior chorus, accompanied by the band, presented a Christmas concert at the Mahoning County Home for the Aged. The chorus also sent representatives to the all-county chorus and the District Solo and Ensemble Contest.

Speech Team

The 1966-67 Speech Team was mainly comprised of freshman and sophomore novices. Headed by senior Kathy Roderick and advised by Mrs. Dolores Hall, the members worked diligently often opposing three-year veterans from other schools. Aided by an additional fund donated anonymously, the Speech Team members were exempt from the usual contest fees.

The team's only major victory was brought by Kathy Roderick, who placed first in the district girls' extemporaneous division at Wilson High School. However, the members made personal achievements, most of them improvising their own cuttings, instead of using "canned" speeches.

The highlight of the year was again the annual Spring Dessert, at which the team could relax.

Art Club

Learning, growing, experiencing — and having fun. All these are part of Art Club. Interested students met twice monthly for an informative and entertaining program in a casual atmosphere where the mysteries of paper mache, crayons, and interior decoration were more fully explored.

Art students this year, under the direction of Mrs. Lotze, had the privilege of attending an art show in Akron sponsored by Senior Scholastic and held at O'Neil's. The art-work displayed at this show was created by high school students in the Youngstown-Akron area who received first, second or honorable mention ratings at the contest.

For the student who further desires to develop himself artistically, socially and culturally, Art Club is an ideal organization.

Library Assistants, Projection Crew

Working behind the scenes of CHS were many students whose time and work were often over-looked. Several students belonged to the distinguished group of library assistants who spent one period every day in the new library helping Mrs. Weimer with the many responsibilities involved in operating a library. These assistants checked the attendance, checked books in and out of the library, filed cards, shelved books, and planned the colorful and creative displays in the showcase.

Another group of volunteers was the projection crew. With their headquarters in the audio-visual room, these boys devoted their study hall time to show films to the classes.

Fall Play

"The Teahouse of the August Moon", written by John Patrick, was the first production to be presented in the new auditorium. The play, sponsored by the junior class, was staged before the largest audience in Canfield history.

The humorous story concerns Captain Fisby (Dave Patrick) with his Geisha girl (Darla Hall) who endeavored to stabilize the economy of the village of Tobiki on the island of Okinawa. His solution was the manufacturing of sweet-potato brandy. Narrated by Sakini (Tom Van Cise) the play climaxes with the discovery by the "top brass" of Captain Fisby's unauthorized, but highly successful scheme. The production was directed by Mr. James Wilhide, who was assisted by Miss Kam McDonald and student director, Paula Paras.

One Act Plays

The fifth annual One-Act Play Festival was presented February 24 in the Canfield High School Auditorium. The student actors, actresses, and directors practiced long hours to produce three diversified one-act plays. The plays, in order of their appearance, were: "The Right Kind of House", a mystery with an unexpected ending, "Between Eleven and Thursday", a play from a new development in drama known as the theatre of the absurd, and "Will the Real Jesus Christ Please Stand Up?", a satire which portrays what can happen when people forget their Christian ethics.

Musical

Echoes of "Honey Bun," "Some Enchanted Evening," and "Bali Ha'i" will ring through the halls of Canfield High School for many years in the memories of the cast and crew and those fortunate people who saw our rendition of the famous musical "South Pacific," performed on March 16, 17, and 18.

Spring Play

Bringing the dramatics season of 1966-67 to a close was the presentation of John Kirkpatrick's three-act play "Vacancy in Paradise."

Wally had stopped at a motel, Paradise Glen, merely to use the telephone, not knowing what the future had in store for him. After meeting the motel owner's daughter, Ellen Danby, Wally embarked on a wild campaign to help restore the run-down motel and to keep it from being repossessed by the bank. Since there had already been three weddings at Paradise Glen that summer, Wally decided to advertise romance for publicity purposes. His efforts nearly proved disastrous when he encouraged a match between the banker's daughter and Boxie, a hobo.

The members of the cast included: Wally (Paul Masters), Ellen (Linda Sharrer), Claire (Sue Richter), Jonas (Bob Gentzel), Mitch (Dick Pollock), Myrtle (Faye Dyckman), Boxie (Scott Shorten), Laura (Karen Trimbur), Bon Bon (Darla Hall), two Boston librarians (Charlene Crowe and Chris Ullman), J. Byron Bennett (Bill Mahoney), Celeste (Jane Ann Barker), Ruth Lassiter (Linda Leonard), and Susie (Andrea 84 Nelson).

Football

This year was a frustrating one for the football-fighting Cardinals, who won 3 and lost 6. But the record doesn't tell the whole story. After a disastrous opener at East Palestine, the young and inexperienced team, with only 8 returning lettermen, came to life and presented a hard-hitting account of themselves by whipping Poland, Cloverleaf, and Columbian in three of the next four games. Fate seemed to swing the other way, however, as the Cardinals dropped last-minute decisions to North and Howland, in the next two games, and also bowed to Fitch and West Branch to wind up the season.

The future seems brighter, however, as the Cards show much promise for the coming year. Twenty-six gridders lettered, eighteen for the first time, which indicates that an experienced team will be returning to again spark Canfield's football fortunes.

Head coach James Drake and Assistant coach Garret LeVan (kneeling).

Team captain, Roger Zwingler.

Varsity coach, Mr. Richard Weiss, and reserve coach, Mr. William Kay, planned the strategy for the 1966-67 season of the Canfield Cardinal Basketball Team. Roy Denny led the Cardinals by scoring 237 points for the season. Closely following him were senior Dave Homorody, and sophomore Larry McCall, with 217 and 207 markers respectively. Dave Homorody had the best field goal shooting average with a 43 percent while Roy Denny led with a rebounding average of 8.4 percent per game. The season's highlights were the wins over Poland and Fitch and a heartbreaking loss to Struthers after leading all the way.

According to the season's records, six games were lost by a total of only 10 points which shows a lack of experience.

Rich Crump, Roy Denny, Dave Homorody and Carl Magyar will graduate this year, leaving John Cummings, Larry McCall, Terry McKnight and this year's most valuable player, Joey Stephens, to return next season.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: counter clockwise starting center top: Jean Moulis, Frannie Peltz, Gail Segreti, captain; Janis Cummings.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders remain synonymous with the term school spirit, and constitute the backbone of it. The vibrancy and enthusiasm reflected by cheerleaders oftentimes is one of the determining factors of a winning season. Cheerleaders represent a team in themselves, who unselfishly give of their time to promote an allegiance to one's school and athletic teams. This year the cheerleaders worked exceptionally hard to boost spirit by planning inspiring pep assemblies and sponsoring a dance to help meet the expenses of summer camp. They also helped to encourage girls to continue this important phase of athletics by conducting a clinic for the instruction of those wishing to try out for cheerleaders for the coming year.

"The Hanging Gardens of Babylon,"

1967 Junior-Senior Prom

Juniors, clad in sweatshirts and levis, worked diligently to transform the famous noon-time haven, known as the cafeteria, into "The Hanging Gardens of Babylon" for the 1967 Junior-Senior Prom held on May 20. In a setting of hanging flowers with a goldfish pond in the center, couples danced to the music of the Crescendos.

Starting what is hoped to become a new tradition, senior Barb Massaro was crowned the first prom queen in Canfield's history by junior class president, Terry McKnight. The queen's court included Bonnie Brenner, Jackie Bair, Lela Coope, and Diane Krouse.

After being served punch and cookies by several tunic-clad parents of members of the junior class, couples journeyed to the Holiday Bowl for an after-prom with music by the Echos.

Honor Students Senior Class Officers

Twenty-five seniors were selected in March, as the honor students for this year. Of these students, Mary Mather and Jerry Eyster will be graduated in absentia. These students chose a representative of their group to speak at commencement and helped with other commencement arrangements. Besides being given the privilege of not attending study halls for the last six weeks, the honor students were invited to a luncheon given by the Rotary Club.

Senior Breakfast

Gathered together for one of the most memorable affairs of the year, CHS seniors breakfasted in the Cloud Room of the fashionable Voyager Inn on June 2. Popular tunes of the early 1960's furnished the musical atmosphere for the occasion. The program, all original skits written by members of the breakfast committee, included a review of past great romances, a history of CHS sports stars, a look at the average student, the average day, and the Wally awards.

Baccalaureate

'Where will we be 10-15-20 years from now? What will we be doing?' Commenting on this fact and that the future holds many changes in store for us, the Rev. Walter C. Eyster, D.D., inspired the members of the senior class with this thought-provoking message — "The kind of person we are, what we hold important, where we turn for our inspiration and guidance will make a big difference in the direction we take in our tomorrows."

"With faith in ourselves, our fellowman, and in God, our future has great promise as each tomorrow becomes today!"

Commencement

Twelve years of many valuable experiences, good times, and hard work were culminated in the first commencement exercises held in the new CHS auditorium. The 153 graduating seniors listened closely to the timely message of Dr. Kenneth McFarland, former educator and lecturer. In this age of unrest and discontent, Dr. McFarland expounded on the topic "Speak Up For America".

Representing the Class of 1967, was Bob Gentzel, chosen as speaker by the honor students. Mr. E. E. Francis announced the scholarship awards and Mr. Myron Leonard presented the class with their diplomas. As the strains of the Alma Mater drifted through the auditorium, each graduate pondered his experiences at CHS and looked anxiously ahead to new adventures and challenges.

Acknowledgment

The school year of 1966-67 revealed many different faces to each student. Among others, there were the faces of happiness, concern, determination, sadness, and disappointment. The Top-Knotter Staff has tried to show as many of these different faces as possible, so that they will be etched in the memories of the students of CHS forever. However, this task would have been impossible had it not been for the help of many people.

Without our photographer, Bob Knuff, of Grist Studio, we would not have had any of the pictures which enhance our pages. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all the consideration and understanding that Bob and the studio have shown us throughout the year.

Our local Taylor Publishing Company Representative, Jerry Elmore, made numerous visits to our school to study our format and assist us in solving layout problems. Many thanks go to Jerry for his endurance and cooperation.

The help and the enthusiasm which was shown to the staff, by the faculty and administration was an inspiration to us. Thank you for all the advice and patience that you showed us this year.

A special word of gratitude goes to our advisor, Mr. James Wilhide, who spent many hours helping us decide what to do and then showed us how to do it. His concern and guidance were a definite asset to the staff.

The patrons are also to be thanked, for it was with their help that we were able to do some special things this year.

Finally we wish to extend our deep appreciation to you — our subscribers and readers, who supported us and really made this book possible. We sincerely hope that you are pleased with the 1967 Top-Knotter.

I am only one,
But I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But I can do something;
What I can do, I ought to do.
And what I ought to do,
By the grace of God, I shall do.
